I have nothing left to hear from you
You lie more than you breathe
And you drink more than you say
You don't ever seem to change.

6. 42 - What To Bring

Take a step to the left to realize what's right
You know you don't act this way when you're out of sight.
You change who you are, for anyone for anything.
You should take a step back and decide what you want to bring.

Take a look at this man
Who doesn't even have a plan
They tell him to be scared and worried and full of fear
But he seems relaxed and patient and full of peace.
He has nothing to do he has nowhere to be.
